APRIL, 2018

Dear Prayer Warriors,

Two months ago, I started a pilot class using the study material I've written as a book called, "One True God". Although this book is not yet complete, I started using it anyway. The purpose in doing this was to try it out so that I could get feedback from the class participants for any improvements needed. The study was written for non-believers (mainly Buddhists) with the purpose of sowing a Biblical seed in their heart to help them learn about the one true and living God. My study group began with two couples. Two wives brought their husbands along because they wanted their husbands to have a personal relationship with God. I allowed the men in this group for evangelistic purposes. The material is very simple and easy to understand because of the explanations accompanying it.

By the fifth week, we had seven attendees. What amazed me were the changes I noticed in the attendees' lives and their enthusiasm about the study. There was one person who previously never cared to read the Bible, but is now reading and praying every day! By the seventh and eighth week, most of them began to recognize their sins and confessed them to God and one another. One woman mourned deeply over her sins because she never recognized her sins in this way before. As she repented, she confessed her sins to everyone in her family. To God be the glory.

One woman finally emerged from darkness after just a few weeks of attending our study group. Over the past seven years, she had been going to church without experiencing true joy or true peace, but now, has begun to understand what it means to have a personal relationship with God. She enjoys the study immensely and sees it as an important foundation for her walk with God.

I give all the glory to God because He has been at work with this pilot class. I shall continue to work on this material until it is complete, however, this will take some time. There are many people whom I have taught in different parts of Thailand who are waiting to use this new study material. Please pray for me as I continue to write and also pray that God's wisdom and anointing be upon me.

Over the past eight weeks, I have been struggling with the recurrence of my eye problem as well as Office Syndrome. I can't read with my right eye! I need your prayers for healing.

Please also pray for my speaking engagement that is coming up on April 25-28. I will be a guest speaker at a women's retreat, among the Lahu Hill Tribe, in Chiang Mai.

I am thankful to the Lord for my new mission clearinghouse, MissionStream. They are punctual in transferring your donations and everything is done professionally and transparently.

In Him,

Mary Noi (Chanaddah Chaisakorn)
