

*"For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea."

Dear Prayer Partners,

Less than six hours after landing in Switzerland, I found out that besides a five-day retreat elsewhere, one church near Bern had already scheduled me to be a speaker for their evangelistic program. Even though I was not properly informed ahead of time, I thank God that I had prepared extra messages that were ready in my laptop! I had only two days before the event, but God's grace was sufficient. The two messages for that day were well-received, and their positive response proved to be an open door for me to minister to even more women throughout Switzerland.

Time of Encouragement

I treasured every moment with each one of them, and for God allowing me to minister to them through counseling and encouragement. I was so encouraged to be with these ladies, because their hearts were open to hear the spiritual truths I had to share. I had tight schedule, but they managed to find extra time for me to relax between each event, which made our fellowship together even more meaningful.

Five Days Retreat

OMF has a ministry to Thai women in Switzerland called "Saisampan". I was their first female speaker for their annual retreat, as they normally invite male speakers. The five-day retreat went very well and the response to the Word of God was very encouraging. The committees and the audience were very pleased with the messages, because the Word of God was boldly proclaimed! Several of them told me that this is the first retreat where they experienced that the speaker truly expound the Word of God. How I praise Him for giving me this privilege to feed these hungry souls with His powerful Word.

Aeh's Conversion

Aeh was a non-religious Muslim. She was not very happy to be at the retreat. However, she could not resist the will of her mother, who is a believer, and has been supporting her financially. Aeh was skeptical, even before the message began, and wondered if my teaching would make any sense to her at all. But by the second day, right after the message ended, she ran into her room and wept with overwhelming sorrow over her sins that God had mercifully revealed to her. That night, she confessed her sins and surrendered her life to Christ! From that moment on, Aeh's life has never been the same, and it has been evident to all who know her. Just recently, she video taped her Scripture memorization and sent it to me as a testimony to her new life in Christ. I was encouraged by her zeal and that she truly means business with God and His Word.

MP3 of My Teaching

I have made MP3 of my teaching on "God's Will for Women". I have made it available to all who are interested, to study on their own (in Thai language). The response to this first release has been wonderful - both in Thailand and in Switzerland. Everyone has responded with a grateful heart, as God's Word has blessed their souls and revealed inconsistencies with His plan for their lives. Now, I have other topics available, and I make them available at a low price, so I can lessen the financial burden and God's Word can go forth.

Conference On the Ship Doulos

"Woman of Excellence" was the topic for the conference held on the ship Doulos. We had around one hundred women from various churches in attendance. I praise God for the many souls He was able to reach for the first time through my teaching. Their response was, "this is the Word of God". To me, it was exciting to show these Christian women from various backgrounds that there is a woman's ministry in Thailand where the Word of God is being taught without compromise.

Working Team

I want to introduce you to my teammates consisting of six ladies (mothers) who have been chosen from my Bible study group. They have been faithfully helping me out in different areas, from setting up the classroom, making contact with different people, and preparing snacks ...etc. More importantly, they have been standing beside me in prayer, praying for all that I have to do in ministering to these women weekly. I am grateful for their supportive spirits and many talents.

Prayer Requests

1. The CD of my teaching in MP3 format may go out widely and effectively.
2. The teaching may reach influential people who will, in turn, share it with even more!
Feel free to pray a great prayer, as we both know God is not limited!
3. Wisdom of God upon my teaching and counseling. Preparing new topics is always a challenge to me.
4. My life will become more like Christ each day.

In Him,
Chanaddah Chaisakorn
